ALEXANDROV, VENKO

Honorary Member, BULGARIA

Prof. Ph.D., anesthesiologist anaesthesiologist, intensive care, cardiac surgery

Date and place of birth: 20 December 1944, Sofia, Bulgaria

Degree in medicine in France, specialised in anaesthesia in cardiac surgery. Former head of the Clinic of Anaesthesiology and the Reanimation Clinic of St. Catherine Hospital. Director of the Clinic for Anesthesiology and Intensive Care at the Military Medical Academy. Active member of the European Academy of Anaesthesiology.

President of the Parliamentary Committee for Foreign Policy and President of the Bulgarian Branch of the Balkan Medical Union.

Prof. Dr. Venko Alexandrov, Doctor of Medical Sciences, is a Bulgarian anesthegiologist and NDSV politician. Graduate in medicine in France, specialized in anaesthesiology in cardiac surgeries. Former head of the Anesthesiology and Resuscitation Clinic at St. Ekaterina Hospital. Director of the Anaesthesiology and Resuscitation Clinic at the Military Medical Academy. Active member of the European Academy for Anaesthesiology. NDSV deputy to the 39th National Assembly. President of the Balkan Medical Union, the Bulgarian Branch, Sofia, Bulgaria.

One of his books: Anesthesiology in Cardio-Vascular Surgery.